what?

The data gathered with this online anonymous school survey are part of the ongoing school improvement planning process.

who?

The 2015 TELL Maryland Survey is for all school-based, licensed educators, including administrators and instructionally based education support professionals across the state.

where?

The 2015 TELL Maryland Survey may be completed by visiting www.tellmaryland.org, using any Internet connection, any time during the four-week survey window.

ANONYMOUS ACCESS CODES: The individual letters with the access codes will be delivered to the district office, via the U.S. Postal Service, and will then be delivered to the schools the week before the survey begins.

HELP DESK: During the survey window, the Help Desk answers all your questions via phone, instant messaging, or email. Visit TELL Maryland for more information.

Research shows that teaching conditions are positively associated with improved student achievement and teacher retention. The TELL Maryland Survey will provide educators with data, tools and direct support to facilitate school improvement. TELL Maryland includes questions about your school on the following topics:

- Community Engagement and Support
- Teacher Leadership
- School Leadership
- Managing Student Conduct
- Use of Time
- Professional Development
- Facilities and Resources
- Instructional Practices and Support
- New Teacher Support

Every school that reaches the minimum response rate threshold of 50% (and a minimum of 5 respondents) will be able to use its own data in annual school improvement plans. The TELL Maryland Survey will be administered over a four-week window. Anyone can view the live response rate tracker for every school by visiting www.tellmaryland.org during the survey window.
